at Neuhausen alternate airfield  since  25X1
 1 October 1953, repair work has been done at the field by order of the  25X1 Athletic and Technical Association. At first, the construction of two low brick buildings was started. Allegedly, the airfield was to be used for glider training by the Athletic and Technical Association.

Comment: This former German alternate airfield is located about 12 km southeast of Cottbus and 1 km northeast of Neuhausen. It appears possible that the field will be used for glider training by the Athletic and Technical Association.
